From Our Rabbi

“...and sometimes I act like I'm about thirteen.” —J.D. Salinger, The Catcher in the Rye

In just a few short weeks, our family will share a very special moment with all of you. On Shabbat, May 31, 2025, our oldest son, Avi, will become a Bar Mitzvah.

As a rabbi, I've had the joy of watching many of our young people step up to the Torah, their faces filled with nervous excitement and pride. Now, it's my own son's turn—and let me tell you, nothing quite prepares you for this moment!

Bar Mitzvah translates to “son of the commandment.” While it marks the official age when a young person takes on full responsibility for the mitzvot, between you and me, it also seems to mark the moment they grow taller than their rabbi!

The Talmud in Pirkei Avot tells us that at thirteen, a young person is obligated to fulfill the commandments. The Halachic text of the Chafetz Chaim, known as the Mishnah Berurah, states: “Bar mitzvah — that is, when he turns 13 and 1 day... now he has become a man in Israel, commanded in the Torah's commandments.” I say it's also the time we start recruiting them to help make the minyan!

Watching my son prepare has been a journey more profound and heartwarming than I could have imagined. From teaching him how to chant the melody of the Torah to sharing some of my well-guarded rabbinic secrets (like how to find the perfect joke to break the ice!), every moment has been a treasure.

As he reads from the Torah and delivers his Dvar Torah, Avi will be weaving his thread into the tapestry of our tradition. This isn't just about a single day of celebration; it's about watching a young soul stand tall, eager to carry the legacy of countless generations before him.

As we look forward to this wonderful day, I'm reminded of the vital role we all play in nurturing the flame of faith and heritage in our children's hearts. Your smiles, encouragement, and engagement means the world to us—and to them. I hope you will continue to offer our young people, especially my children, your wisdom and warmth. After all, who else will teach them how to gather the perfect amount at the Oneg and Kiddush, or master the subtle art of shul politics?

May this special occasion inspire all our children and grandchildren to embrace their journeys with joy and courage. In the words of our tradition, may they grow “from strength to strength,” finding their unique path in our rich faith.

As for my son, Avi—may he always find joy in every commandment, every deed, every moment of learning. May he always feel Hashem's Love Tickling him and being the Source of complete joy and happiness. May he always wear his Judaism with pride, may it always be the essence of his identity, and may he always have the courage to be his authentic self — and may he still laugh at his dad's jokes, no matter how old they get.

Rachel, Avi, Ezra, Nisa, and I look forward to celebrating with each and every one of you. Kiddush to follow!

With all my heart,
Rabbi Dan

Message from our Co-President

Many thanks to our Temple B'nai Jacob membership for your congratulations and words of encouragement as I begin my new position as TBJ co-president alongside our very dedicated Morry Silverman. I am aware of the responsibility and will do my best to help our Temple B'nai Jacob continue and thrive.

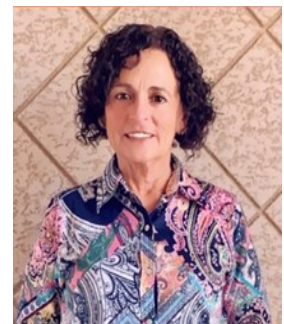

Alan and I were synagogue members for many years before B'nai Jacob: temple preschool, Bar Mitzvah lessons. When we moved to Wellington, we first joined the conservative shul in West Palm Beach as there was no shul in our area. Later we became involved in establishing the first synagogue in Wellington. How nice to have a local synagogue, Hebrew school and religious events close to home, the children were teenagers, B'nai Mitzvot completed, they joined Jewish teen organizations and attended Jewish sleep away camp. Synagogue life for us was no longer a priority, the kids know and understand their Judaism. We became "high holiday ticket" synagogue attendees.

My mother, z"l, who was widowed for many years, passed away suddenly in 2006. I felt empty. Alan and our children, thankfully, are wonderful, supportive, self sufficient but my life was missing something. I needed something spiritual and I found it in a little conservative synagogue just beginning its life in Wellington.

I was able to say Kaddish for my mom each week, I was surrounded by synagogue members and I felt their warmth and support. This has continued on holidays and with various life cycle events throughout the years. Temple B'nai Jacob has continued to provide me with the spiritual guidance that makes my life more enriched. I have found that I am more deeply connected to my Jewish identity, I continue to learn and the worship services are now more relevant than ever.

Temple B'nai Jacob is here to be a spiritual home for all of our Jewish community. We enjoy a variety of activities and welcome your involvement, there are many, many opportunities. Please plan to join us for our Family Shabbat Service on Friday, May 2 and the Family Picnic on Sunday May 4. Bring a friend, spread the word, we are all members of the B'nai Jacob family. It's always fun meeting new people and schmoozing with our TBJ friends. Keep up to date with our weekly bulletin and be aware of the many additional activities and learning experiences offered by our Temple B'nai Jacob of Wellington. Share your thoughts, I welcome your input and look forward to speaking with you. Shalom,

Andrea Cohan

We are excited to announce the details of the Annual TBJ Picnic, to be held May 4th, 11:00am, at the Pine Pavilion in Loxahatchee Groves Park, 13901 Southern Blvd, Loxahatchee.

If you have been looking to get more involved in temple life, we have a few opportunities:

- Picnic "elves" are appreciated to help with the set up. We'll meet at TBJ approximately 10am to help bring all the goodies over to the pavilion.

- BBQ Grillers are needed. If you love to work a BBQ grill, we can use your help. And don't worry, none of the dirty work of cleaning the grill is necessary as we use brand new grate covers. Just bring your best fire starting and flipping skills!

- Be a Sponsor: You may not have the extra time to help with set up, or the inclination to run the BBQ, but if you could financially assist by underwriting a $54 sponsorship, we would be extremely grateful!

- Please R.S.V.P. as soon as possible. We are still a few weeks away, but let us know if you are able to attend, as this allows us to plan appropriately and purchase the right amount of food.

The TBJ Annual Picnic is always a fun time, we look forward to seeing you there!

Please see the attached flyer for more specific details.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Blitman & Liz Thal, Co-Chairs

A Prayer for Israel in this Time of War (October 7th 2023)

God, our Strength and Protection, we pray for the State of Israel in this devastating time of war, shock and grief. Our hearts are breaking, God. We pray for the lives of the innocent civilians who have been heartlessly kidnapped by Hamas, bring them home, watch over them, God. We pray for the lives of the soldiers who have been taken captive, we pray for their safe return, shelter them, God. We pray for the souls of the innocent victims who were brutally slaughtered. Send comfort and strength, God, to the grieving. Send healing to the injured, and strength and wisdom to their doctors and nurses. We pray for all our brothers and sisters in Israel in this time of tragedy and crisis.

Watch over Israel, God, spread Your shelter of peace over the land and over all our brothers and sisters who live there. Shine Your light upon Israel's leaders, officers and advisers, innocent blood is calling out to them to overcome all divisiveness and to act with clarity and determination. Protect the men and women who defend Israel, let them be safe and may they be victorious over the Hamas terrorists who attacked our people. Watch over them, God. Hear their prayers. Bring peace, God. Let it rain down from the heavens like a mighty storm. Let it wash away all hatred and bloodshed.

Peace, God, please, God.

God of the brokenhearted, God of the living, God of the dead, gather the souls of the victims into Your eternal shelter. Let them find peace in Your presence, God. Their lives have ended, but their lights can never be extinguished. May they shine on us always and illuminate our way.

Amen

by Rabbi Naomi Levy

MAZEL TOV

Avi Krinsky will become a Bar Mitzvah on May 31, 2025, just two weeks after his 13th birthday on May 17. Avi is a bright, thoughtful, and dynamic young man with a passion for both learning and sports. A gifted mathematician and deep analytical thinker, Avi's mind is always at work—whether he's solving complex equations or planning his next strategic move on the chessboard. He also shines on the football field, playing quarterback for both his school team and in the NFFL youth flag football league. Whether live on the field or on the PlayStation, Avi absolutely loves everything football—playing the game, watching highlight reels, talking stats, and even collecting and trading player cards. He brings energy, focus, and heart to everything he does, excelling academically and athletically. His family is incredibly proud of the person he is and all that he continues to become.
